Ancient-Future Leadership

August 20 - September 24

AUG. 19 & 20: HOPE-FILLED
ROMANS 8:18-27

Without fail, leaders understand that they are called. While few use this language, most feel a sense of greater responsibility. True leaders are like Paul, bold in their belief that the best of them comes from their times of pain. Even more, true leaders bear hope to others.

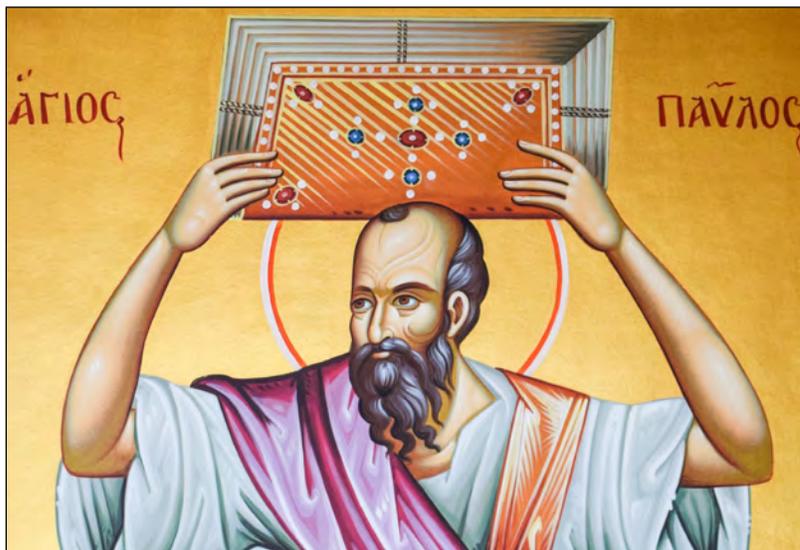

AUG. 26 & 27: BOLDLY FLAWED
ROMANS 7:14-25

Today's leaders are different. They understand the radical transparency in our culture and own their shortcomings, rather than trying to hide them. Humility is "in" and for that we are grateful.

SEPT. 2 & 3: APART FROM WORKS
ROMANS 3:21-31

On this Labor Day Weekend we reflect on what our work cannot do for us. God's love is grace, a gift, something we cannot earn by any work. Does this mean that we need not work? Does this exempt us from leadership?

FOR THE REMAINING SERIES SCRIPTURE TEXTS, CHECK ONLINE AT sheridanlutheran.org/about-us/worship-schedule OR IN THE NEXT EDITION OF THE SCROLL.

Ancient-Future Leadership

LEADERSHIP. It is changing. The very way that leadership is being measured is different now than it was just a year ago. Perhaps this is a good thing? Perhaps this is a biblical thing?

Few topics have been written about as much as leadership. Some things have been written that are timely. Other things have been written that are timeless. When Paul was writing to the church in Rome, he wrote a summary of the Christian faith for new believers he had never met. These new believers were leaders of sorts - trailblazers of a new faith in a hostile community. Paul wrote to them, not just to give them information, but also to give them inspiration in their leadership. Looking at Paul's letter to the Romans we see some timeless leadership principles. As we read Romans together, we will reflect on what true leadership is about.

What is interesting is that today's movement toward a more biblically oriented view of leadership is actually a result of our modern ways. How odd that the old has become new out of necessity.

Each year Fortune Magazine ranks the 50 Top Leaders. These are their identified characteristics of leaders. A true leader acknowledges reality and offers hope, brings followers together and builds bridges. How do you define leadership? What do you believe makes a leader great? Do you share in these characteristics? The Apostle Paul does. During August and September, we will learn how he embodies the most contemporary definition of leadership.

In Romans, Paul makes it clear that we are loved by God and made right by God's grace. He also teaches that we are to grow in faith, for only then is God's grace made real for us. As we explore leadership this fall, our goal is to grow in faith and knowledge of God's amazing grace. Lead on, O King Eternal.

New Ministry: GriefShare

GRIEFSHARE MEETINGS BEGIN THURS., SEPT. 7; 7-8:30PM; ROOM 522.

This program features biblical, Christ-centered teaching that focuses on grief topics associated with the death of a loved one. The DVD seminar features nationally-respected grief experts and real-life stories of people, followed by a small group discussion. Many grieving people find they are only beginning the work of healing when friends or family have returned to their daily life routines. Too often, people, including Christians, tend to stuff their grief instead of allowing it to do the God-given work for which it is intended.

Don't allow fear of what others may think keep you from what could help you. Confidentiality is very much a part of this program. You will find encouragement, comfort, and help in grieving the death of a spouse, child, parent, sibling, other family member or friend, regardless if your bereavement experience is recent or not so recent.

No matter what the cause of your loved one's death, this is an opportunity to be around people who understand what you are feeling. You will learn valuable information about facing your new normal in life and renewing your hope for the future.

TO REGISTER: Call the church office 402-423-4769 by Sept. 6. Cost: $15, with scholarships available. While the meetings begin Sept. 7 and progress through the year, you are free to join at any point. Child care is available with advance reservation. Any questions, call Carol Petersen 402-419-9805.
