Pursuing Spiritual Transformation Series (study booklets to work through - no video.)

Fully Devoted, Living Each Day in Jesus' Name

What does it mean to do everything "in Jesus' name"? Is that an ideal attainable only by a few "super Christians"--or is it a way of life we can all experience? The goal of "Fully Devoted: Living Each Day In Jesus' Name" is to help you define spiritual life and then live it as Jesus would. The first book in the Pursuing Spiritual Transformation series, it introduces you to "The Five Gs" - a framework which embraces five key areas of the Christian life. This tool will help diagnose your spiritual condition and then prescribe the practices, experiences, and relationships you need to make progress. Subsequent studies explore one "G" per guide. You do not need to do the other books in any particular order, but we do recommend you do this book first to lay a foundation.

Giving, Unlocking the Heart of Good Stewardship

Jesus said more about money than just about any other topic. Clearly, it is an important issue - and a touchy one! Deep down, we know it is not a matter of what we earn but how we manage what we earn that shows our ultimate priorities. Giving demonstrates how good stewardship is more than a responsibility - it's an adventure. As you study the connection between your wallet and your heart, you'll learn how money management is a powerful tool for shaping your character. You'll discover how giving is as much a part of spiritual growth as prayer and Bible study. And you'll learn about the rewards of cultivating wise financial habits and a generous heart. Above all, you'll find out how a lifestyle of giving reflects the heart of God, who freely gives his best to you. 7 sessions included.

Gifts, the Joy of Serving God

Gifted - that's you! Uniquely equipped to help build up the body of Christ. As a follower of Jesus, serving others is an integral part of your identity and an important key to your personal growth. But how do you cultivate a servant's heart and your spiritual gifts in ways that build up your church, your family, your friends, and your world - without wiping you out in the process? Gifts guides you to the answers. Through personal study and small group interaction, this study will help you develop a passion to be used by God. You'll find out about your unique place in the body of Christ and how to surmount the obstacles that keep you from thriving. You'll discover the joy of serving with others - doing together what you cannot do alone. And you'll learn how to abide in Christ, experiencing a freshness and vitality that grow as you give! 7 sessions included.

Grace, an Invitation to a Way of Life

Many Christians have an easier time being saved by grace than they do living in grace every day. But grace is at the center of the life God calls us to--and reflects the heart of the One who calls. These studies in Grace will help you make the connection between grace as a remote biblical concept and grace as a lifestyle--a reality you experience day in, day out. Through an unfolding study of Psalm 23, you'll learn how God--our Good Shepherd--is for you, how he longs to walk with you through temptation, sorrow, and even deep regret. You'll discover God's desire to make his joy your joy. Throughout, you'll learn how enduring, powerful, and life-affirming God's work in your life can be--and rediscover why it's called amazing grace.

Groups, the Life-giving Power of Community

Community is God's idea. Only in community can we know and be known, love and be loved, celebrate others and be celebrated by them. And only through close, transparent relationships can we be transformed as individuals. Groups invites you to enjoy the rewards--and embrace the risks--of community. Step by step, this study will challenge and encourage you to explore the amazing potential for growth found in authentic relationships. You'll study the true nature of friendship, the power of paying attention, the path to intimacy, the encouragement of being there for one another. You'll learn what it means to live out these and other simple but vital truths for being all you are, giving all you've got, and receiving all you need as a member of God's dynamic community, the church.

Growth, Training vs. Trying

What would your life be like if Jesus lived it? Imagine the change you would experience in your thoughts, actions, and relationships. Think of the joy and freedom that could transform every area of your life. That's exactly what God has in mind for you! You'll find out how in Growth. Through personal study and small group interaction, this study sets you on a path to live out the character of Jesus in this world as only you can. It happens not by trying hard, but by training. By cultivating spiritual disciplines--Scripture meditation, prayer, solitude, endurance, loving others--you'll discover the joy of being transformed by Christ and the freedom of living each day sustained by his power.

The Bible Jesus Read

The Old Testament is God's biography, the story of his passionate encounters with people. It is also a prequel to the story of Jesus, who came to answer the questions that troubled the ancient writers and still trouble us today. Philip Yancey is your guide as you explore these sometimes shocking, often cryptic divine writings. During eight riveting, interactive group sessions, you will come to know God more intimately, anticipate Jesus more fervently, and find a wonderful, wise companion for your faith journey. This leader's guide gives you clear, step-by-step guidance for conducting eight interactive group sessions that will change your picture of the Old Testament forever. Parenting the Early Years

A 6-session video Bible study curriculum by Drs. Les and Leslie Parrott for parents of young children. On this six DVD series cameras went into the homes of 20 families and captured real-life parenting moments. Some of these are funny moments and some are just completely honest moments that every parent can relate to. The study looks at what it's like for married, single and blended families. It works well in a Sunday morning class or small group study, a parenting seminar or even to send home with expecting parents or even grandparents who are finding themselves raising their grandkids (because we all know children don't come with instructions).

Parenting Your Teenager

Identity questions, emotional turmoil, rebellion. Welcome to the teenager's world. And if you're their parent, you're already in that mix. It's a tough job, you know, and you've got to do it. Nowadays, you have to play counselor, cop, and crisis manager all rolled into one. Good parenting means using your head, your heart, and your faith. Parenting Your Teenager equips moms and dads to recognize common patterns, plan effective strategies, and build character. Perfect for a church class or seminar, the 4-DVD set (with six lesson plans) features relationship experts Les and Leslie Parrott. And, in 24 gut-level interviews, parents and teens talk openly about rebellion, conflict, pain, and identity. Plus, there's a candid chat with singer Steven Curtis Chapman about faith and family. 4 video series, 6 sessions include participant guide and leader's guide.

Single Parenting that Works

Single Parenting that Works is a 6-lesson study designed to encourage single parents to build healthy relationships with their ex-spouses and to raise their children to love and honor the Lord. This study will help parents understand that they are not alone in the challenges they face. Parents will find practical, biblically sound guidance on being loving, caring, and effective parents to their children. These six sessions focus on:

- Bringing stability to children by helping parents get their own lives in order
- Learning to forgive one's ex-spouse and opening the door to healthy relationships
- Relating to one's ex-spouse with grace and maturity instead of retaliation and bitterness
- Developing positive self-esteem in kids so they can gain a sense of confidence and belonging
- Teaching kids to be respectful, responsible, and resourceful through "reality discipline"
- Relating to your children according to their unique, God-given personalities.

Six sessions on DVD with leader guide and participant workbooks.
